

Course Outline

EM1: Understanding ISO 14001 and Environmental Management Systems Requirements

1. Objectives of the course

The objective of this course is to define and describe an environmental management system and how it facilitates sound environmental management and business management. At the end of the course the participants will be able to:

- Understand the requirements of BOS ISO 14001
- Understand national and global environmental issues
- Identify and evaluate environmental aspects and impacts
- Write an environmental policy
- Understand basic principles of auditing and certification

2. Course contents

- ◆ International and national environmental issues and concerns
- ◆ Environmental risks and opportunities
- ◆ Requirements of ISO 14001 and benefits associated with implementing it
- ◆ Introduction to environmental auditing and certification/registration.

3. Course Duration

4 ½ days

4. Target group

Personnel who manage environmental functions, evaluate environmental systems and require general understanding of environmental management systems.

5. Course Fees

As advertised